Dear Candidate:

Congratulations! You passed the Intel Certification exam. You will find your score report included with this letter.

By doing so, you've not only proven that you're among the best in your field, you've started down the path to successfully completing the Intel Certification program. By pursuing Intel Certification status, you'll not only broaden your personal abilities, you'll have the additional expertise to better serve your customers and your employer.

We're very excited about your interest in becoming Intel Certified. Keep up the good work!

Sincerely,

Susan Davidson
Program Manager
